

Self-Branding through Storytelling

In this 90 - minute session you find out, explore, and define your story to clearly depict who you are, what your strengths are and how you can use this in a job interview ('Tell me about yourself'), making a mini-selfie- video or as a useful and different intro at networking events.

Talk about yourself in an engaging storytelling kind of way.
Get people to want to listen to you.

Sessions are available in person in Hong Kong or via SKYPE.

Session Fee: HK$ 2,000.00
